Periwinkle Chanticleer

Intended to be in the Fenton line for 2004, the impressive Chanticleer (French for "Rooster") figurine in opaque Periwinkle Blue weighs more than six pounds. This piece proved too difficult to produce efficiently, and only a few ever reached the marketplace in 2004. The mould originated at the Fostoria Glass Co. in the 1940s, and Fenton acquired it through Indiana Glass in 2003.
